Myrtle Beach Golf at Myrtlewood from \$79

There are literally hundreds of Golf Courses in the Myrtle Beach area. Each one is special in it's own way and you will never get tired of playing golf in Myrtle Beach.

Choosing Myrtlewood Villas gives you more lush living space for your vacation dollar. Spacious one and two- bedroom condos make you feel at home during your stay in Myrtle Beach. Enjoy the Atlantic sunrise...soak up the noonday sun...enjoy the evening coastal breeze with cool sand at your feet. We're just minutes away from shopping centers and outlets. The Myrtlewood Golf Club courses offer a challenge for either the weekend golfer, or the "single-digit" handicap player. Built in 1966, The Myrtlewood Golf Club Pinehills Course was designed by Arthur Hills. The course is level, but has mounds which can cause uneven lies incorporated as part of the fairways design. There are many sand bunkers and large trees which can alter your shots. The greens are medium speed and undulating. The Palmetto Course, is a "Bent" grass course with water in play. Built in 1972, The Palmetto course runs parallel to the Intracoastal Waterway with its signature hole #18 a very demanding par 4.

Your Stay & Play Package includes; One or Two Bedroom Villa accommodations; One round of golf per night stayed per person on either Myrtlewood course. Pre-arranged tee-times, shared cart. Free shuttle transportation to Myrtle Beach's best attractions is included with your stay.  Package based on quad occupancy. This package starts at $79.00 per person per night based on 4 people. Dear Harry, Vacation season is in full gear here in the Southeast. The 2004 Masters Golf Tournament in Augusta, GA is behind us and Phil Mickelson still can't believe he won his first major. The MCI Heritage Classic in Sea Pines, Hilton Head, SC is also over with another exciting 4- hole playoff finish. The announcers just couldn't say enough times how beautiful Hilton Head Island was.

We traveled to another beautiful location a few weeks ago, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. In this issue you will read about our Travel Article and can follow a link to the full article. Of course we had to make Myrtle Beach our Featured Destination this month. We've also included a few hotels from popular destinations, a special Golf Package and a wonderful cruise. Spring is in the air and travel is in our blood. Come spend a few minutes with us and find your next Getaway.

• Featured Destination: Myrtle Beach, SC

Near the end of March 2004 we spent a week in the "Grand Strand", as the Myrtle Beach area is commonly called. One local businessman said its name is attributed to being the longest continuous stretch of beach in the US and another said it was a marketing concept to include all the smaller communities along the entire strand area. This area stretches for 60 miles along the South Carolina coast and encompasses many communities-each with its own identity and unique qualities.

Myrtle Beach is a haven for Golf Courses but also is a tremendous location for a Family Vacation. In addition to the long stretches of white beaches for the family to play on, there are plenty of attractions for the kids, such as the Nascar Racetrak, an impressive selection of Put Put Golf courses, amusement parks and more. Mom and Dad have every imaginable style of restaurants to eat at, all-day shopping "villages" to shop in and much more.
