Dear Harry,

We've been busy adding new Destinations to Southeast Getaway. You've always been able to make Hotel Reservations throughout the Southeast and for that matter the world, just by doing a Discount Hotel Search from any of our pages. You've also been able to use our City Guides to find out more information on many of the popular destinations. Now planning your vacation to our new destinations became even easier. We've highlighted some of the new areas below. After you get excited, you can read more about them by clicking on the link.

In addition to these new destinations, we are about 90% completed with our conversion to the new site format. The new format provides all the tools you will need to plan your vacation. They are located on the top and sides of every web page. Included are navigation links to our popular areas as well as links to Tools such as Hot Rate Hotels, Car Rentals, Travel insurance and more. Southeast Getaway is your convenient and safe web site for your vacation and travel reservations.

• New Area - New Orleans, Louisiana

New Orleans is proud of its well-known nickname, "Big Easy", because it so aptly describes the attitude of this lovely city, steeped in history and intertwining cultures.

The city retains its Old World aura, carefully preserving its history, its reputation for world-famous jazz and cuisine, and its romantic Creole heritage. From art galleries and museums to professional sports, from the high life on Bourbon Street to enchanting riverboat cruises, New Orleans offers every visitor hundreds of entertaining and enjoyable destinations. No wonder it's known throughout the world as a city where hospitality never ends!

• New Area - Williamsburg, Virginia

Colonial Williamsburg bridges Virginia's past and present, with remnants of the Confederacy preserved amid the cultural and commercial bustle of modern day. Colonial Williamsburg is the nation's largest and oldest outdoor living history museum and portrays 18th-century Williamsburg as it appeared on the eve of the American Revolution. Throughout the city, an engaging mix of sights, sounds and activities helps visitors reconnect with America's past and become active participants in 18th-century life. Not only can visitors enjoy the restored buildings, but also actors recreate the everyday lives of early settlers. On Colonial Williamsburg's 173 acres, 88 original 18th- and early 19th-century structures, such as the courthouse, have been meticulously restored. The site is bent on keeping to the period's authenticity from pieces of furniture, pottery, china, glass, silver, pewter, textiles, tools, and carpeting, to landscaping.

• New Area - Gulf Shores, Alabama

Many people are only now becoming familiar with Gulf Shores due to a recent, aggressive TV campaign. Now you can learn more about this Beach Destination. The mild climate makes water sports possible year round, as well as deep sea fishing, bird watching and hiking. Off the beach enjoy the water slides, bungee towers, miniature golf, and go-cart tracks.

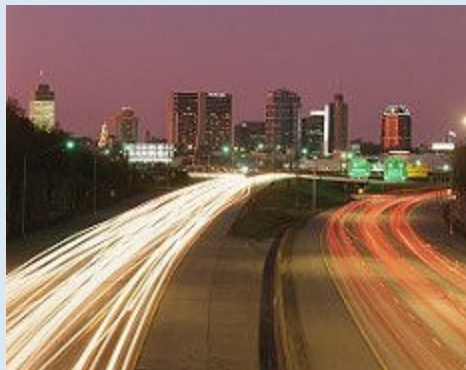

This is an ideal spot for family vacation fun on the Gulf Coast. The Gulf Shores Shrimp Festival in the Fall is always a treat. The area boasts some of the most attractive and most challenging golf courses in the country. Historic Fort Morgan and the battleship U.S.S. Alabama in nearby Mobile are always popular. Ft. Morgan hosts Civil War day camps for children in the summer.

• New Area - Nashville, Tennessee

Yeeehaaaa - If you haven't been to Nashville, you have no idea what you are missing. We went to Nashville 2 years ago and are going back this fall. First stop, Ryman Auditorium. The history of Nashville starts at the Ryman which began as a church and then later became the music hall for entertainers such as Roy Acuff, Dolly Parton and Hank Williams. Now, the Grand Ole Opry at Opryland has taken over where Ryman left off. The Opry is home to the "world's longest-running live radio program", which got its roots at Ryman. And just around the corner is the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum. Nashville's "Music Row" is home to dozens of recording studios, music company offices and songwriting houses.

Country music's home is based in the heart of Nashville. But even if you are not a country music lover, there's still plenty to do. Museums, sporting events, history, are all here. So come take a ride to Music City USA.
